Dear Clerk,

In the court rules (dated 3-20-2013) at MCR 3.807(B)(3), it states that the tribe/custodian has "a right to intervene at any point in the proceeding for foster care placement or termination of parental rights pursuant to MCL 712B.7(6)."

My review of MCL 712B.7(6), indicates intervention is allowed "[i]n any state court child custody proceeding, . . . at any point in the child custody proceeding." The intervention is not limited to foster care placement and termination of parental rights.

Thank you,
Elizabeth A. Eggert
